

Eileen Treacy

Prof Eileen Treacy MD, FRCPI, FRCPC, FCCMG (Clin Genetics) is the National Lead for the Rare Disease Clinical Programme and Director of the National Rare Diseases Office.

Prof. Treacy trained in Paediatrics and in Clinical Biochemical Genetics in Canada, France, and Australia. She was appointed as Assistant and then Associate Professor in Paediatrics and Human Genetics at McGill University, Montreal, Canada before taking up a consultant appointment as Metabolic Consultant at Children's University and Mater Misericordiae at Trinity College Dublin and is a full Clinical Professor at University College Dublin.

Prof. Treacy has specific research interests in rare diseases, inherited metabolic disorders and the treatment of genetic diseases and has published extensively in this area. Prof. Treacy is currently Co Lead of the European Galactosameia (GalNet) Consortium, Principal Investigator for a HRB-HRA Galactosamia research grant and national coordinator for the EC 3rd Public Health Grant in Rare Diseases (RD-Action 2015-2020).