

Dr Mary Kearney

Dr Mary Kearney is a General Practitioner and she currently works part-time in general practice in Tallaght. She is tutor for the Kildare General Practitioners at the Irish College of General Practitioners (ICGP). She works in a voluntary capacity as board member of the European Reference Network for Rare Neurological Diseases in her position as a patient advocate.

Dr Kearney brings a wealth of experience with her to the Board, She ran her own GP practice in Dunlavin, Co Wicklow for 30 years and was a member of ICGP's Council, Research and Ethics Committee and their Quality and Safety in Practice Committee for several years. She was Secretary General of European Ataxia patient organisation from 2004- 2007 and Medical Adviser to the Laura Lynn children group 2001-2003.