

Anne Micks

Anne Micks is the chair of Irish EDS and HSD. The organisation is dedicated to providing current information and support for families and individuals with rare connective tissue disorders, Ehlers Danlos Syndromes and Hypermobility Spectrum Disorders in Ireland, including the multiple comorbidities.

Anne has 25 years' experience of operating at a senior level across both the public and private sectors, in Ireland and the U.K. she has held various positions in Multinational organisations from Managing Consultant to programme manager. She has a strong track record at multi stakeholder engagement, influencing policy and facilitating business change.

Anne holds a BSc in Computer Science, Prince II accredited and a diploma in Management Studies.